PURE BLOOD JERSEY CATTLE.

Commendable Enterprise.

Our town had a surprise last week in the way of a street parade that created a pleasant sensation. It was a lot of beautiful Jersey cattle, which had been bought in New Jersey by our enterprising townsman, Mr. M. N. Williamson. They were in charge of an expert herdsman, who had been detailed to deliver the cattle to Mr. Williamson. They are all pure bloods and registered:

Clemantine, No. 1,278—imported.
Theresa of Jersey, No. 8,337—imported.

Artists Lass, No. 17,972—imported.
Khedive's Count, No. 14,436—out of Theresa of Jersey.

Anna of Manalapan, No. 32,207—3 years old.

Maud S. of Manalapan, No. 32,209—18 months old.

Mignon of Manalapan, No. 32,210—15 months old.

Jessie of Greenville, No. 30,175—23 months old—out of Clemantine.

Lady Adaline, 12 months old—out of Anna of Manalapan.

They belong to fashionable and popular strains, and were bought from breeders of high character.

We congratulate Mr. Williamson on his ownership of such fine cattle, and as a friend to true progress THE PROGRESSIVE FARMER desires to say that he has done a public service by bringing his cattle to this community. Williamson, Bahnsen, H. E. Fries, and R. T. Stedman, are the kind of men who build up a country, and verily they shall have their reward.

MEETING OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

The regular monthly meeting of the County Commissioners was held Monday. There is little of general interest in the proceedings. Several persons were relieved from paying poll taxes, &c., and the liquor dealers whose license had not expired, and applied, were allowed a rebate of one month. The Clerk of the Board was instructed to notify the Justices of the Peace of the county to send in names of persons suitable for appointment as supervisors of roads, by the 12th inst. Flavius N. Pfaff was appointed to examine the Mickey bridge across Muddy Creek and have repairs made or build a new bridge if deemed necessary, the contract for either to be given to the lowest bidder, after 10 days' advertisement. The Board will hold a special meeting next Monday for the purpose of appointing supervisors for the roads under the Watson road law, and to adjust the tax lists, hear complaints, &c.

A PEA HARVESTER.—If it be true that "seven acres of peas can be harvested, shelled, cleaned and put in sacks, ready for the market, in one day, at a cost of about 2 cents per bushel," then we are on the verge of another revolution in farming in the South. And THE PROGRESSIVE FARMER is proud that the invention is made by a North Carolinian. Read the advertisement of Mr. B. O. Savage, of Goldsboro, N. C., and write him at once.

—The County Democratic Convention to select delegates to the Judicial Convention at Yadkinville, and to the Congressional Convention at Greensboro, was held in the Court House Monday afternoon. No regular delegates were chosen, but a resolution passed that any Democrat from the county who might attend either of these conventions be considered a delegate. The resolution expressed a preference for Mr. R. B. Glenn for nomination for Solicitor, but no preference for Judge nor for member of Congress.

—The committee of ministers appointed to investigate the accusations against Rev. J. T. Bagwell, pastor of the Methodist Centenary Church, of improper correspondence with one of the female members of his congregation, closed the investigation Thursday afternoon by suspending Mr. Bagwell from the ministry and membership of the church and preferring charges before the next N. C. Annual Conference.

—Mr. Ed Wilson is the proprietor of a magnificent wild turkey gobbler, which he purchased a short while ago from its captors. It is a splendid bird, of beautiful plumage, and struts around with royal stride in its place of confinement back of the Orinoco warehouse.

—An unemployed white or colored man is a rarity in Winston. In this community the loafer is an unknown quantity.

OPENING OF THE STATE NORMAL SCHOOL, WINSTON.—This institution was opened yesterday under most favorable promise. About thirty-five male and fifty female teachers were present. The exercises were of the most interesting character. They were opened with prayer by Rev. Dr. E. Rondthaler, of Salem Academy. Rev. Dr. C. H. Wiley, Chairman of the Board of Commissions, made a very happy speech, and introduced to the audience the following named gentlemen, who, in short addresses, most happily adapted to the occasion, and which were received with real and genuine relish by the auditors: His Honor, Judge T. G. Wilson, Mayor of Winston, Mr. Lindsey Patterson, of Salem, Hon. J. C. Buxton, Rev. H. A. Brown, Hon. C. W. Wilson, Rev. Dr. E. Rondthaler, Judge F. R. Farrar of Virginia. Dr. Wiley then turned over the school formerly to Prof. Tomlinson, Superintendent, who, after a brief and practical talk introduced Prof. Mitchell and McIver, each of whom made sprightly little speeches. Prof. Tomlinson announced that Prof. Blain, Instructor in English Grammar and History, Prof. Neave, Instructor in Music, and Miss Bessie Fanning, who will have charge of the Primary School, were absent but would arrive during the week. He also stated that the prospect for a full attendance of pupils was encouraging.

We regret that our hour for going to press precludes us from giving a more extended notice of this interesting occasion.

—P. H. Terrell, who shot and killed Buck Dunlap at Prestonville on Saturday, 26th ult., and was captured on Sunday, was brought to this city Wednesday by Sheriff Dalton and lodged in jail, as it was apprehended that he would be lynched by Dunlap's friends, if confined in the jail at Danbury. It seems the sheriff got wind of the talk of lynching and took the prisoner quietly from the Stokes jail and brought him over here.

CEDAR GROVE ITEMS.—In consequence of the continued rains not over half of the oat crop will be saved. Bottom corn is covered with water. Some farmers have given up portions of their corn fields as hopeless.

—Mr. James Norwood, of Orange county, the pioneer stock man of the State, spent Monday in Winston. He don't raise anything but fine stock and his pastures will show horses, cattle, sheep, &c., equal to the best bloods of any section.

—We were shown a couple of days ago an egg, found in a lot purchased by a boarding house lady, which measured six inches one way and seven and a quarter inches the other, the achievement of an unknown hen.

—The Fourth of July was observed in Winston by a partial suspension of business. The tobacco factories were all closed, the Forsyth Rifles paraded in the afternoon, and in the night the boys burned lots of rockets and fire-crackers.

—W. P. Jennings and J. T. Jennings, of this county, sold in the Piedmont warehouse yesterday 1,200 pounds of tobacco for $352.53, an average of 29 1/2 cents per pound.

—Mr. S. R. Slate, of Mizpah, Stokes county, sold at Brown's warehouse last week 601 pounds of wrappers at an average of $40.90 per hundred pounds.

—The Presbyterian congregation of Winston are contemplating the erection, at an early day, of a new church.

—Fred Gurner, a butcher, was shot in the leg Monday from the accidental discharge of a pistol in his pocket.

—There were thirty-four patents granted bearing date of June 29, 1886, to Southern inventors, so we are informed by Louis Bagger & Co., solicitors of patents, Washington.

DIED.

[For the Progressive Farmer.]

Mr. N. WILLIAMS, of Yadkin county, born February 4th, 1800, died at his home July 3d, 1886, aged 86 years, 4 months and 29 days.

In early life he went to the University of our State, but was prevented from prosecuting his course of study by severe illness. Throughout his whole life he was an enthusiastic advocate of higher education, and was ever a strong and faithful friend of the University. For forty years he was a member of its Board of Trustees, and rarely did he fail, during this long term of service, to be present on commencement occasions.

At the age of twenty-five he was married to Miss Mary Graves Kerr, whose lovable disposition and excellent qualities of heart and mind made her the happy companion of his life until about two years ago, when she was taken from him by death. This blow shadowed his life with a sorrow that was deep and abiding. Their union was blessed with nine children, two of whom only survive. Besides his own children a number of others were brought up under his charge and found a home under his hospitable roof.

His magnificent home was the resort of many of the most cultured men and women of his generation. He enjoyed the friendship of many of the most eminent and distinguished men of the United States. The open doors of his hospitable home, the large heart and liberal hand, at all times, greeted, alike the needy and the wealthy, with a lavish, generous kindness and welcome, that made his house a true representative home of Southern culture. He was a striking and conspicuous land-mark of "the olden time." He was the last of the Committee who received and escorted Henry Clay into our State in 1844.

He was one of the Council of State under the administration of Gov. Manly, and when the dark clouds of war gathered over us, he was again called to act in the same capacity under the administration of Gov. Vance. Possessed of a clear and well balanced mind, a noble and generous heart, and surrounded with all the essential conditions of domestic happiness, his life was comparatively free from trouble. Upright, just, honorable and true, he fell asleep as peacefully as a babe, and leaves behind him as a priceless heritage to his children—a good name and a pure character. XXX.

A HARDY LIGHT-WEIGHT.

As a very thin preacher was walking along the street near his house, says the Living Church, he was stopped by a man of robust proportions.

"Are you the clergyman living in this neighborhood whom the people say is dying of consumption?" inquired the hearty-looking individual, at the same time taking an ample survey of the divine's meagre frame.

"I don't know, brother," meekly replied the clergyman; "but I have been preaching the gospel at this weight for fifteen years, and many's the time I have conducted funeral services over just such a big, healthy brother as you."

The robust individual said not a word, but thoughtfully walked away.

Winston Tobacco Market.

CORRECTED WEEKLY AT THE WAREHOUSES.

Breaks are liberal so far this week and prices continue fair for all sound tobaccos in good keeping order. Damaged and tobacco in bad order are selling very low. We note a good demand for dark and medium bright smooth, sweet leathery mahogany wrappers and fillers. We quote sound tobaccos:

A Revolution in Farming!! BY THE USE OF SAVAGE'S RICE HARVESTER AND SAVAGE'S FIELD-PEA AND BEAN HARVESTER.

Seven Acres Harvested, Shelled, Cleaned and put in Sacks, Ready for Market, in One Day, at a Cost of about Two Cents Per Bushel. One Man and Two Horses with the Machine can do the Work Easily, Rapidly and Effectually.

The Field Pea, Bean and Rice Harvester, now in practical use, invented and for sale by Mr. B. O. Savage, Goldsboro, N. C., is in our opinion one of the greatest labor saving machines of the age. We have seen it work in the field, and managed by one hand with either one or two horses, will gather, thrash and deposit in sacks six acres per day.

J. H. ALEXANDER & Co., J. W. LEGGETT, W. R. CHERRY, Palmyra, N. C.

We have tried Mr. Savage's Harvester on our farm and it will gather field-peas at a cost of about two cents per bushel, thereby saving its cost in labor in a short while. We expect to use one of Mr. Savage's Harvesters the coming season.

J. H. ALEXANDER & Co., Palmyra, N. C.

I have ordered a Field-Pea Harvester from Mr. Savage to gather my crop of peas the coming fall.
